

Pearls of Wisdom contributed by University Hospital Women

1. Courage is not simply one of the virtues, but the form of every virtue at the testing point. (C.S. Lewis)

Patricia Rondan-Mann, Patient Relations

2. Amazing things rarely happen within comfort zones.

Barbara A. Karpinska, Ambulatory Care Services

3. How about giving up your TV?

Barbara A. Karpinska, Ambulatory Care Services

4. When we long for life without difficulty, remind us that oaks grow strong under contrary winds and diamonds are made under pressure. (Peter Marshall)

Anne Egan, Foundation for UH and Office of the Medical Staff

5. It is never too late to be what you might have been. (George Eliot)

Brooke Tippens, Department of Marketing & Communications

6. You NEVER know whose life you may save with a simple “Good Morning”. Think about this when entering a room, elevator or passing through a corridor.

Theresa Gibson, Bed Management

7. Optimism is the faith that leads to achievement. (Helen Keller)

Janice Nemeckay, Medical Staff Affairs

8. Knowing what must be done, does away with fear. (Rosa Parks)

Janice Nemeckay, Medical Staff Affairs

9. If you are having a bad day, remember laughter and love heals all.

Lorraine Little Bell, Human Resources

10. There is nothing like a good laugh. It puts everything in perspective.

Lorraine Little Bell, Human Resources
